

Oral homework: Read the text aloud to an adult and make sure you pronounce all the words correctly.

Learn the underlined sentences, by heart./Muntlig läxa: Läs texten högt för en vuxen och se till att uttala alla ord rätt. Lär dig de understrukna meningarna utantill.

The Best Dog

Read about Greg and Julie talking about their dogs.

Find out who has the best one.

GREG Hi, Julie.

JULIE Oh, it's you, Greg. What do you want?

GREG This is my new dog. I call him Casper because he's white like a ghost.

JULIE He looks very nice.

GREG Yes, he is. He's much better than your dog. What's his name?

JULIE Einstein, because he's so smart.

GREG My dog's smarter. He can catch a ball in his mouth.

JULIE My dog can do that too.

GREG Oh. Well, Casper can swim right across the lake.

JULIE Einstein can swim across and back.

GREG Casper can run faster than a car.

JULIE Really? Einstein runs faster than a train.

GREG Yes, but Casper is so clever that he brings me my school bag every morning.

JULIE I knew that already.

GREG How did you know?

JULIE Einstein told me.

FOLLOW UP

1. What do Greg and Julie discuss?
2. Which dog do you think is the smartest? Why?

ghost spöke

better than bättre än

smart smart, klok

catch (caught, caught) fånga

swim across simma över (till andra sidan)

lake sjö

faster than snabbare än

clever smart, klok

know (knew, known) veta

tell (told, told) berätta